OLA NEWS

Friday 5th July 2019

Dear Parents, Carers, Children and Governors,

Reception class assembly – Thank you children for your lovely assembly about the Zoo – you were amazing yesterday. I loved your paintings of tigers and your wonderful singing !

KS1 lining up differently from next Monday. – In preparation for September, from next Monday the Year 2 children will line up on the KS2 playground and enter the building by the side of the hall. Reception and Year 1 children will remain on KS1 playground and line up in their new class lines.

Thank you ! - A massive thank you to the parents and staff who supported our Paddy's Plea swabbing event yesterday. We took nearly 80 swabs – so fingers crossed one may just be the right match for Paddy or another child in desperate need of help.

Mass – Year 5 are at mass next Wednesday at 9.30am – all welcome

Leaving Celebrations - Parents you are invited to all the following events :

Wednesday 17th July at 9.30am in church - Thanksgiving mass for Year 6 and Mrs Connelly followed by tea and cake in the hall.
